December 2007

It is hard to believe that it has been a year since I was sworn in to office on December 4 last year and given this great privilege of representing the people of the 41st Assembly District. It has been an exciting year and a productive one, but only with the help and support that so many of you have so generously provided.

Most of all, however, I want to take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you a Very Happy New Year of peace, justice, tolerance, love, and joy.

With warmest best wishes,

Julia Brownley
